BILL OF EXCEPTIONS

COMPLETED FRIDAY BY COURT STENOPHGRAPHER FOR RASCO.

TO BE FILED BY JULY 1

Abstract Contains 1,756 Pages and 702,400 Words—One of the Largest in the State.

Court Stenographer Harry M. Irwin finished Friday the bill of exceptions in the Hez Rasco case, which is to be taken to the supreme court. He turned the abstract over to Rasco's attorneys, Ellis G. Cook and Edward E. Williams.

The record will be the largest that has ever gone from Nodaway county to the supreme court. It is neatly typewritten and gotten up in good shape.

There are four volumes, and the total number of typewritten pages is 1,756. The record contains all of the Rasco trial from the start to when the appeal was granted to the supreme court by Judge Ellison. It contains 702,400 words.

The bill of exceptions will be filed before July 1, with the circuit clerk and when properly signed up will be sent to the clerk of the supreme court. Before this is done, the attorneys for Rasco will proof read the abstract and also pick out important parts of the record for a brief. This will not have to be done, however, until August or September.

The Rasco case will probably be filed for the October term of the supreme court. It will be about the first of next year before the court will give their decision.

As Mayor Robey did not return from Omaha, where he was on business, until 9 o'clock, not a very long session of the council was held.

ENTRIES FOR MEET

HIGH SCHOOL HELD PRELIMINARY FRIDAY.

CONTESTS IN ALL EVENTS

A Third Cup, Known As the Record Cup, Given This Year—Smaller Schools Have Better Chance.

The High school held the preliminary track meet Friday afternoon on the Normal Athletic track, and the contestants for the big meet were selected. The following entries were made and will be in the track meet Saturday:

100-yard dash—Kirby Taylor, Robt. Fisher.

220-yard dash—Wood Forcade, Kirby Taylor, Orlo Quinn.

½-mile run—Charles Kane, Wood Forcade.

¼-mile run—Fleming Carpenter.

1-mile run—Fleming Carpenter, Paul Denny.

Running broad jump—Fred Vandersloot, Orlo Quinn.

Running high jump—Charles Kane, Fred Vandersloot, Kirby Taylor.

Shot put—Fred Vandersloot, Orlo Quinn, Robert Fisher, Kirby Taylor.

Pole vault—Robert Fisher.

Half-mile relay—Robert Fisher, Kirby Taylor, Wood Forcade, Orlo Quinn.

Substitutes—Clun Price, Fred Vandersloot.

Discus throw—Fred Vandersloot, Orlo Quinn, Fred Hutchison.

220 low hurdles—Charles Kane, Robt. Fisher.

220 high hurdles—Charles Kane, Fred Vandersloot.

Unless the meet this year is much faster than last year's meet, the Maryville boys ought to pull down prizes in a goodly number of events. In Friday's trial meet, Kirby Taylor ran the 100-yard dash in 10 3-5 seconds, lowering last year's record 1-5 of a second. In other recent practices some of last year's records have been broken. The relay team lowered the record 1 second and Orlo Quinn succeeded in bettering last year's broad jump.

The smaller schools of the district will have a better chance of victory this year than last for St. Joseph has been handicapped in a manner. A third cup, known as the record cup, is to be given this year to the school which makes the most points. This cup is of the same size and quality as the first trophy cup.

The distinction between the two cups is that only schools of less than 300 students may compete for the first trophy cup, while any school may try for the record cup. By this ruling St. Joseph can compete for the record cup only. In case Chillicothe, Maryville or any of the other smaller schools should win the meet that school would take both the record cup and the first trophy cup. The next school in order would get the second trophy cup. Should St. Joseph win the meet she would get the record cup only, the school with the next highest number of points would get the first trophy, and the third highest school the second trophy.

As St. Joseph is the only large city in the district, and as her high school students have the advantage of excellent gymnasiums and physical instruction, this arrangement has been agreed upon as no more than right.

This will be the opening day of Maryville's "clean-up" campaign.

The women will pay one cent per dozen for the cans.

Mayor Robey will count them in the presence of the assembled multitude. Here is work for the children of Maryville!

The Coming Humorist.

"Now, sir, what do you think of that?" said the mother, after she had boxed Bobby's ears.

"I don't think at all," replied the youngster. "My train of thoughts has been delayed by a hot box."—New York Herald.

Mr. Fred Curfman and three little children of Ravenwood spent Saturday in Maryville and visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Seafers.

By the Harem Code.

"Do you think I am really your affinity?" Solomon's nine hundred and eighty-fifth wife asked, coquettishly.

"My dear," the Wisest Guy said, "you are one in a thousand."

E. H. BAINUM AGAIN SUFFERS A BROKEN LEG.

SLIPPED ON BARN FLOOR

In Hay Loft of the Old Bus Barn on North Main Street—Is Resting Saturday Afternoon.

E. H. Bainum, Maryville's well known "bus" man, met with an accident Saturday morning at the old bus barn on North Main street that resulted in his left leg being broken about three inches above the knee.

Mr. Bainum had gone up into the barn loft to clear it out, when he slipped and fell on the straw covered floor, the bones in his leg snapping like a crackling in the fall.

Mr. Bainum called for help and Grant Trusty, Tom Gile and Mr. Bainum's brother, Shell Garten carried him down and put him in an ambulance and took him to his home on West Third street, where Dr. Nash set the broken member and he is now resting as easily as possible.

Let's Burn, Also the Rubbish of Our Minds

(By Winifred Black in K. C. Post).

Let's Live in the Brand New world, the world of smiling April, when all the land's a-bloom—away with the old cares, grudges and haunting troubles.

Queen Lilac has come to town.

I saw one of her purple retinue in full and glorious bloom this very morning.

The Princess Snowball will be here in a day or so—the green petals are already edged with milky white and the first thing we know we shall wake up in a world of beautiful blossom.

In every fragrant valley Red Bud—Missouri's own particular tree—blushes like a June Bride—and along the shallow creeks and on steep hillsides the Wild Cherry stands afoam in white lace like a young girl dressed for her first communion.

The yellow Dandelion winks cheerfully from the side of the road—what a gallus sort of a gallant he is that same sturdy little dandelion. And this morning I saw two boys going to school with their brown hands full of Spring Beauties and little blue and pink anemones.

Make a bonfire of the foolish things. The Maple Trees are dressed in their curious reddish leaves—their hairy of early Spring—and all the roosters in town were out at dawn this morning calling to the sun to rise and behold the splendor of the Spring.

Come on—let's go out in the yard and rake up the old rubbish and the leaves—let's make a bonfire of all the things that have accumulated all winter long—the foolish things, the useless things, the worn out things—the ugly things—the faded tinsel from the Christmas tree, the broken basket that the children carried the eggs in on Easter morning, the old programs that litter up the house and sift into every drawer and every desk like some fine and penetrating dust—and with them let's burn the rubbish of our minds.

Here, an old grudge—it's been making me miserable for months. Into the fire with it—burn—burn—and leave my heart in peace.

Here's a little haunting trouble—the doubt of an old friend's new sincerity.

Into the blaze you—you've cumbered my household too long. What's this little green box here? Miserable sort of jaundice color, isn't it? Let's open it and see. Pshaw, what a bitter, acrid odor—jealousy that is—the meanest kind of jealousy in the world—they call it envy sometimes—envy of a friend's success.

Proof—watch it burn — there—how clear the air is now.

Care, worry, the dread of what may some time come—in they go, all of them to help to make the dancing flame.

Come out of the house of sorrow.

How green — how green the grass springs in every vacant foot of land! How blue—how blue the April sky! and oh, and oh, the tracery of the lacy branches against the blue!

Come out of the house, come out of the sorrow, come out of the discouragement—come out of the long cold winter of discontent and discomfort—and let's live in the brand new world, the world of smiling April—now today.

What—shall the Lilac and the Snowball and the Blossoming Crab Apple tree be more courageous, more loving and more full of cheer than we?

The world—the gay old world, is dressed for the festival of Spring.

Let's forget everything else and go out doors and be a part of it!

PARENTS POISON ENTIRE FAMILY

Mother and Child Dead, Father and Baby Alive.

Chicago, April 22—Fear of impending starvation caused a father and mother to administer strichnine to themselves and their two children, both under four years old. The mother, Mrs. Honore Dzilorgot, and the older child, Joseph, are dead and the father and baby are in a hospital, where it is said both will recover.

Neighbors, who heard moans coming from the Dzilorgot cottage, notified the police and found the woman and boy dead and the others only partly conscious.

Dzilorgot, in the hospital, told of the poverty which followed his long illness and then related the desperate agreement with his wife that the two should poison themselves and their babies.

"With my last 25 cents," he said. "I bought the poison at a drug store. I took it home and my wife and I mixed it in the little milk we had left. The milk was the only food we had in the house. Some was given to the children, my wife drank some and I drank the remainder. There was no use to try any longer and agreed it was better to die than to starve and see the children starve before our eyes."

Dzilorgot became ill five weeks ago and was forced to leave his work. His resources were exhausted and when he recovered his wife became ill and the man could not leave her and the children.

AN EASY AND HARMLESS WAY TO DARKEN THE HAIR.

Who does not know of the value of sage and sulphur for keeping the hair dark soft glossy and in good condition? As a matter of fact, sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably, there is no better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially premature grayness, than sage and sulphur, if properly prepared. The Wyeth Chemical Company of New York put up an ideal remedy of this kind called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy and authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle and is recommended and sold by

HOUSE PASSES RECIPROCITY BILL

Lower Body Declares for Measure, 264 to 89.

NO CHANGE MADE BY MEMBERS

Measure Goes Through in Same Form as Reported From Committee and Is Practically Identical With Bill Submitted at Last Session.

Washington, April 22.—President Taft's Canadian reciprocity agreement, supported by all but a handful of Democrats and opposed by a majority of the Republicans, passed the house of representatives by a vote of 265 to 89.

The measure went through in the form in which it was reported from the committee. The bill, which has President Taft's entire approval, practically is identical with that submitted at the last session.

The bill seeks to put into effect the formal agreement reached between President Taft and members of the Canadian cabinet for a reduction of tariff rates on many articles and free trade in many others across the Canadian border.

Added to it by the Democratic leaders is a section which "authorizes and requests" President Taft to make further efforts to secure still freer trade relations with Canada, in the form of additional reciprocal relations.

Ten Democrats voted against the bill on its passage, while 197 Democrats voted for it. As in the case when the bill passed at the preceding session, a majority of the Republicans voted for it, while 110 voted against it.

nd Mrs. W. J. Staples, Miss Lagin, Wade Smith and Miss Et Lee Winston, took an eighty-mile drive Sunday in the Staples boy visited Graham, Maitland, Quitman, Burlington June 26 to an end with the speeches of the three leaders in the fight—Representatives Underwood (Ala.), McCall (Mass.) and Dalzell (Pa.).

McCall urged the Republican members from the northwestern border states to support the reciprocity agreement. Any attempt to tack new free list onto the reciprocity bill as an amendment, he continued, would completely upset the whole reciprocity agreement.

In a final attack on the bill Dalzell (Pa.) declared the agreement had been made without authority of law.

Dalzell called the agreement a "bungling piece of statesmanship."

He characterized it as an "open, avowed free trade measure," and said its passage would threaten the whole policy of protection to American industry.

"Heralding the era of honest competition," Representative Underwood (Ala.), chairman of the ways and means committee, closed the debate.

The enactment of the reciprocity bill into law, he said, would mark the end of the period of "exclusion" in the economic policy of the country insofar as customs laws affect industrial conditions.

Mrs. Taft occupied a seat in the executive gallery.

BOOM LAUNCHED FOR HARMON

Ohio Delegation in Congress Begins Work for Governor.

Washington, April 22.—The Ohio Democratic delegation in congress after scanning the political horizon to the east and to the west, decided to go to work in earnest for Governor Judson Harmon, their candidate for the presidential nomination in 1912.

That Mr. Harmon will have formidable rivals was conceded by every body at a conference, which included Senator Pomerene, Lieutenant Governor Nicholls and the sixteen Democrats of the Ohio delegation in the house.

"Don't overlook Bryan," cautioned Representative Cox when the Harmon boomers began to weigh the prospects of Champ Clark of Missouri and Governor Wilson of New Jersey to determine from which of the gentlemen they had most to fear. It is said that the majority of those present thought Speaker Clark was the one to look out for just now.

WILL PROBE CIVIL SERVICE

House Will Inquire Into Rights of Employees to Organize Unions.

Washington, April 22.—An investigation of the civil service system has been ordered by the house committee on reform in the civil service. It is the purpose of the committee to investigate the question of the rights of civil service employees to organize unions and to inquire into charges that the service has degenerated into an institution of favorites. Cabinet officers probably will be compelled to attend as witnesses.

President Taft is requested in a resolution introduced in the house to furnish to congress an explanation of the resignation of David Jayne Hill as ambassador to Germany. The resolution is a joint effort of Representative Lever of South Carolina and Brantley of Georgia, and is based on reports that Dr. Hill in the potash controversy incurred the president's displeasure.

Madero's Forces Are Waiting Just Outside of Juarez.

BATTLE MAY BEGIN SOON

Insurrecto Leader's Latest Statement Not Clear as to When Attack Will Be Made—Text of President Diaz's Answer in Doubt.

El Paso, Tex., April 22.—The armies of Diaz and Madero are marking time. Madero's army is waiting just outside of Juarez, well armed and numerous. Inside the town, heavily fortified, are the 750 loyal soldiers of Diaz, waiting for the attack. The federals, after a quiet night, undisturbed by shot or war indications of any character, are ready for the battle, they declare, any time Madero opens it. Outside the town Madero and his men are waiting for Porfirio Diaz, president of Mexico, to send word that he is willing to resign the presidency. This, they declare, is the only thing that will prevent an attack on Juarez.

During the day persons attempting to bring about an armistice for the discussion of peace obtained from Madero the statement that "I will wait

INSURGENTS' DEMAND DENIED

Senate Will Not Recognize Separate Organization.

TAFT RESENTS THEIR ACTION.

Rejection of Proposition Does Not Include Decision to Give Faction Less Number of Places Than They Were Entitled To.

Washington, April 22.—Formal demands made by insurgent Republican senators that they be recognized as an organization distinct from the Republican majority of the senate and that they be given one-fourth of all of the majority membership of the committees and control of these assignments were rejected by a vote of 4 to 7 at a meeting of the senate committee on committees.

Representatives of the regular Republican organization in the senate determined to check the insurgents' demands after it was learned President Taft resented the insurgent attitude in opposing policies recommended by him and their putting barriers in the way of his renomination for the presidency in 1912. That this was the real reason for the widening of the breach between regulars and insurgents was freely stated by some of the majority members.

That the insurgent members of the committee did not bolt is said to be due to the fact that the rejection of the proposition submitted did not carry with it a decision to give this faction a less number of places than they were entitled to in accordance with their number, which is about one insurgent to four regulars. The action of the majority, it was said, was intended merely as a declaration that the dominant faction would not recognize a minority of the party as having rights under a separate organization.

After the committee meeting both the regular and insurgent forces went into session. Plans were made for renewed hostilities today, when assignments will be offered to insurgents as individual senators.
